

PMI KZ Chapter_ Candidates 2013 – 2015_Bios_21 JAN 2013

Lubov Khudova

Lubov Khudova is a President of the Association of light industry enterprises of Kazakhstan, CPM, a member of the Business Council under the President of Kazakhstan, Ph.D., Assistant Professor, Academician of International Informatization Academy of the General Consultative Status of UN and the World Information Parliament Presidium, Professor of ATU. The author of 23 scientific publications, 24 scientific publications. The owner of two patents. The member of Board of National Economic Chamber of Kazakhstan "Union "Atameken", member of the Business Council of the Akim of Almaty. She was awarded the "Badge of Honor".

Maigul Suleimenova

Maigul Suleimenova, MSc in Project Management

Maigul Suleimenova currently works at Aristan Project Management Group as a Manager. Company is focused on construction, design projects within Kazakhstan. Maigul's main responsibility includes assistance to the project manager with daily administration by using project management tools and techniques.

Miss Suleimenova has become a PMI member in May, 2012. She holds MSc degree in Project Management from Lancaster University Management School (UK). As a recent graduate with MSc in Project Management, Maigul is focused on professional growth and personal development in project management and is really self-motivated to be engaged in such unique projects as PMI Kazakhstan Chapter.

Moreover, Maigul is going to take CAPM exam next year.

Miss Suleimenova has also a strong background in Economics and has received a Bachelor degree in Economics and Business from Eurasian National University named after L.N.Gumilyev in Kazakhstan.

Anar Umurzakova

Anar Umurzakova is the Project Manager for Consulting of COMPAREX Kazakhstan, PMO Area Manager for Caucasus and Central Asia of British American Tobacco, Master of Science in Project Management, Certified by APM Group as PRINCE2 Practitioner, Certified by Project Management Institute as Project Management Professional (PMP), Certified by Computer Associates as Clarity Associate Functional Consultant

Ms. Umurzakova has the following qualifications and experiences that will aid in providing the leadership of the PMI Kazakhstan Chapter.

Key competences: Project management expert experienced in IT, marketing and risk management in roles of PMO manager, functional lead, business trainer, systems and business analyst and system administrator. Recognized for the ability to organize work under stress and in multi-cultural environments to achieve project goals and meet deadlines. Core strengths include quantitative analysis, written and verbal communication, and teambuilding.

Dinara Khalitova

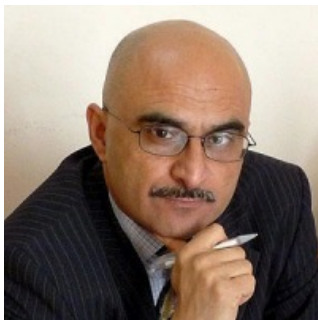

Dinara Khalitova, MHS, CAPM, is an Associate Medical Advisor at Eli Lilly Vostok S.A., the representative office of the Eli Lilly pharmaceutical company in Kazakhstan. In her current role, she is responsible for educating physicians on disease care and providing up-to-date scientific and product information to business partners. Mrs. Khalitova also fulfills the role of the Local Medical Grant Committee Assistant.

Prior to joining Eli Lilly, she worked as a specialist in the Immunobiological laboratory and enhanced her knowledge and skills as a project coordinator and consultant in the healthcare industry.

Mrs. Khalitova is a self-motivated, results-oriented person always looking for creative opportunities to produce a significant impact on business. She graduated from the Kazakh National Medical University (Kazakhstan) and earned the Master's degree in the Family and Community Medicine from the University of Toronto (Canada). She has been a Certified Associate in Project Management (CAPM) credential holder since 2012

Fuad Hajiyev

Fuad Hajiyev is an Advisor in the Center of Energy Research, Nazarbayev University (NU), Astana, Kazakhstan

Mr. Hajiyev research interests include:

- Algebraic topology and its applications to the theory of Post algebras of functions. Applications of algebraic topology to algebras of functions, especially: homotopy theory, groups of homotopy classes of continuous functions, structure of Post algebras of continuous functions and etc. (13th Hilbert's problem & related topics).

- Mathematical economy. Mixed economic mechanisms in presence of superlinear connections.

Lectures

Undergraduate

Abstract Mathematics, Calculus, Mathematics for Economists, Mathematical Modeling for Economists, Operating Research, Introduction to Graph Theory, Differential Equations, Introduction to Algebra, Introduction to Topology, Real Analysis. Functional Analysis.

Graduate

Introduction to Homological Algebra, Foundations of Algebraic Topology: Homology and Homotopy, Topology of Manifolds, Mathematical Economic Theory: Mixed mechanisms.

Other Activities:

- Permanent member of International Jury of: A) Annual International Mathematical Project Competition for high school students (IMPC), 1999 – 2006, Kazakhstan, B) International Olympiads on Math, Physics and Computer Science 2005-2011; C) Republican competitions of scientific projects among high school students 2003-2011
- Member of International Program Committees and Organizing Committees of the various International events on IT Technology and Applications, Innovations in Kazakhstan and abroad.
- Expert of the international university students intellectual competitions "Intellectual Olympiads", 2004-2011, Astana TV, Kazakhstan; Expert of the high school students intellectual competitions "Lider XXI veka – XXI century leader", 2001-2003, Khabar TV, Kazakhstan
- Co-founder of the Community IT managers RK
- Co-initiator of the «PMI Kazakhstan Potential Chapter»
- Author of publications in press and TV appearances on various aspects of IT education, innovative development of Kazakhstan in IT, etc.

Vladimir Zatolokin

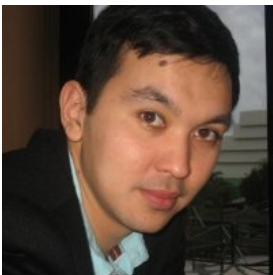

Vladimir Zatolokin is a Chief Operating Officer in the Softpromproject company at Softprom Group, Co-founder at the Public association "Society of Information Technology Managers of Kazakhstan", Initiator and co-founder of Union of legal entities «Union of Project Managers in RK», Co-initiator and executive director of the I/II/III/IV International Symposiums «Project Management: Kazakhstan – 2002/2003/2004/2012», Initiator and sponsor of PMI (Almaty) Kazakhstan Potential Chapter (since 2004), Organizer of the first PMP-training in Kazakhstan on PMI standard (together with Cheetah Learning, Canada), the first online-certification on PMOC qualification – Project Management Office Certification (together with ALLPMO Network, CWA), the first target training for top management on innovation management (together with CPMG, USA-Russia) and models of business perfection of EFQM (together with Ukraine Association of Quality), Co-initiator and director of international forums «Business Performance Management: Kazakhstan - 2008», “Software Engineering Summit – 2009/2010/ 2011-2012, Kazakhstan”, Co-chair of International Organizing Committee of Olympiads IT-Planet, in January 2011 Leadership Development Certificate Program of KIMEP awarded membership in the Leaders' Forum, key speaker of many international and national forums and conferences in Kazakhstan and abroad.

Mr. Zatolokin is a participant of the international IPMA congresses in 2003, 2005, 2006. He has international IPMA certificate (Level C), Certificate of professional specialist on modeling and automation of management systems and business effectiveness in PlanDesigner environment. Mr. Zatolokin has the following qualifications and experiences that will help in his leadership role in the PMI Kazakhstan Chapter: development, planning and management of production tasks, projects, and programs in the field of heavy engineering & energy industries (1973-1999), professional business education, management consulting, and informational technologies (thematic activity: financial instruments & technologies for investment attraction & project & program management & business performance management & leadership & outsourcing – 1999-2013).

Aidos Abzhalelov

Aidos Abzhalelov is a Senior Lecturer at Kazakh British Technical University, Owner of Retail Construction LLP.

Mr. Abzhalelov, PMOC has the following qualifications and experiences that will aid in providing the leadership of the PMI Kazakhstan Chapter: Team Leadership, Problem Solving, New Business Development, Construction Management, Retail, Project Management, Business Planning, Business Development.

Tengiz Bolturuk

Tengiz Bolturuk is a Chief Operating Officer of JSC Syrymbet at Lancaster Holding Inc., Almaty, Kazakhstan

Mr. Bolturuk, P.Eng. M.Sc, PMI, CIMM. Licensed Canadian Professional Engineer. An experienced project and process management professional with a wide variety of projects implementation worldwide including Canada, USA, Peru, Iran, Mongolia, China, Russia, Kazakhstan, Ghana and South Africa. A varied background gained over 25 years in engineering and operation, including responsibilities for overall project management, mining operation management, mining business improvement consulting, process plants design, engineering studies (scoping, PFS, DFS), mine site construction, start-up and commissioning. Very knowledgeable of processing of gold, copper/molybdenum, lead, zinc, tin, tungsten, iron, fluoride, mercury and antimony. A seasoned traveler to remote mining sites regardless of its location, whether it is in the arctic or at 5,000 m above sea level. Strong leadership, multicultural, diplomatic and management skills has been demonstrated working with Jacobs/Aker Solutions, Tetra Tech, Barrick Gold, Celtic Resources, Cameco, Goldfields, Highland Gold and FSU mining companies. Dedicated to maintaining a reputation built on quality, service, and uncompromising professional ethics.

Areas of expertise: Project Management, Feasibility studies, EPCM experience, Operations Management, Mining Operation Business Improvement, Project Planning, Budgeting & Scheduling, Process Plant Engineering, Process design (SAG, HPGR, Flotation, POX, CIL, RIL, BIOX, Roasting)

Rinat Iskakov

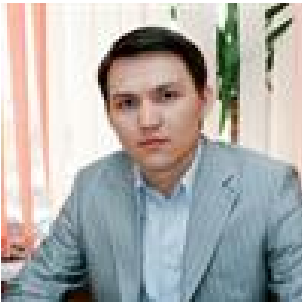

Rinat Iskakov is a Professor at the Department of Chemical Engineering and the Director of the International Office at the Kazakh-British Technical University (KBTU). He is also a Chairman of ChemEng at KBTU.

Mr. Iskakov's research interests embrace polymer processing and design, microencapsulation, self-healing composites and systems.

Mr. Iskakov is an author of 175 scientific publications.

He has a Doctor of Science degree from the Institute of Chemical Sciences (Kazakhstan) and Ph.D. degree from the Advanced Biomedical Engineering Institute, TWMU (Japan) and the Institute of Chemical Sciences (Kazakhstan). In 2000 – 2003, he was a Post-Doctoral Researcher at the Texas State University (USA) and the Institute of Biomedical Engineering & Tokyo Medical University (Japan). Additionally, Mr. Iskakov shared his knowledge as a visiting lecturer at the National University of Singapore, the Texas State University. He worked as a Manager at the PolyAB Ltd and SPLab (Kazakhstan), Engineer-biotechnologist at the Akrikhin Pharmaceuticals Ltd. (Russia). Mr. Iskakov proved himself as a leader while fulfilling the duties of the Executive Director of the Kazakhstan Association of Scientific Organizations and the Chairman of the three Scientific Seminars on Metal-Polyimide Materials under NATO "Science for Peace". For his scientific and research activity he was awarded numerous awards and certificates in Kazakhstan and abroad.

Bahitbek Katen

Bahitbek Katen is a CEO of Arystan Group and Chair of Board Directors of Almaty Business Association. He is always inspiring people for better and guarantee the success to anybody who works with him. He is the one of the honest people and always tries to keep his word. As a professional he's got a great pool of knowledge and experience in the sphere of real estate and construction. We need such talented and charismatic people, here :)

Key competences: Karate, Real Estate, Real Estate Development, Architecture Leases, Shopping Centers, Due Diligence, Construction, Commercial Real Estate, Appraisals

Timur Muminov

sales skills.

Timur Muminov, CAPM is a skilled business development leader utilizing my 15+ years of valuable experience in building architecture approach in Unified communications, Data Center infrastructure, Cloud computing. Planning, development and implementation best practices to build outstanding Enterprise-wide IT. Proven business leader and sales leader with expertise in both large and small companies, building a consistent track record of growth and profitability. Success due to my strength and ability to develop long term executive relationships with clients and alliance partners. Possesses expert knowledge of direct and indirect sales channels with international experience. Excellent management, technical and

Key competences: Years of proven complex sales, Strategic and Operational Planning, Strong solution/strategic selling skills, Partner and Alliance Development, Proficient in creating unique programs tailored to meet client's needs; Excellent communication and presentation skills, Highly successful at problem solving and troubleshooting, Decision Support/Condition Monitoring/Analytics, Excellent closer; Efficient time management and organizational skills, Budget and Financial Accountability.

Timur Muminov is DC technology evangelist at Cisco Systems

Vladimir Palagin

Vladimir Palagin, CPM/IPMA, PMP/PMI, an International Assessor of IPMA Project Excellence Award, Candidate of military sciences, senior lecturer. Co-initiator of the «PMI Kazakhstan Potential Chapter». Member of IPMA, PMI, UPMA (Ukrainian Project Management), AACE International, NETLIPSE (Network for the dissemination of knowledge on the management and organization of Large Infrastructure Projects in Europe). General Director of «Eurasian Project Management Centre» LLC. Expert of Project Management / Strategic&Business Planning / Organizational Development / IEPCM Projects. Publications, participation in national and international forums for Project Management, Economy and Innovations issues.

Vladimir Palagin is a Lecturer of MBA/MBI courses - Company control, Program/Project Management for organizational development, innovations and investments projects. Analysis of technologies; analysis of markets; estimation of business; estimation of risks; development of the Feasibility Report and business-plans; engaging of investments; PR/GR for initialization, planning and realization of multinational investment projects for power, telecommunication, transport, industrial and housing and communal services for enterprises in the Russian Federation and CIS countries. Diagnostics, development of strategy and programs of development for power, machine-building, mining, building and transport enterprises. Optimization of an organization structure and business-processes of enterprises' administration. Optimization of an organization structure and administrative processes for state and local administration. Development and implementation of information systems and systems of automated management for command and control bodies. Development of international cooperation. Languages: Russian — native. English — fluent. German — fluent. Polish — enough for interview. French — enough for interview

Eugen Pikulev

Evgeny Pikulev, PMP is a project management professional and CEO with Agile Technologies. He has over 15 years of experience in information technology, energy, finance where he has used his skills in strategy, planning and project management at various organizational levels. Prior to Agile Technologies, he was an expert in defining and creating Project Management Offices (PMO) in some commercial banks of Ural region, Russia, their Project Management Methodology (PMM) and their process improvement strategy. He also served as a project manager in CJSC Integrated Energy Systems, which is Russia's largest private power supply company.

Mr. Pikulev is a member of PMI since 2007. He has founded Yekaterinburg branch of PMI Moscow Chapter, Russia and he is a leader this PMI community for 5 years where his volunteer work helped to translate a number of PMI standards including The Standard of Portfolio Management, Second Edition into Russian language. Currently, Evgeny Pikulev is Consultant, Trainer and Speaker in Project and Portfolio Management in several projects across Russia and Kazakhstan. He has collaborated with large consulting firms at the regional and global levels, American consulting companies, and PMI global educational providers.

Mr. Pikulev has been invited to participate as a keynote speaker in several project managements events in Russia and international online conferences. Evgeny Pikulev has been interviewed by several media outlets and has written articles on Information Technology Project Management trends, Agile approach and Requirement management with magazines across Russia and CIS.

Marat Tavassov

Marat Tavassov, MD, MSc is a Senior Manager at the Department of Integrated Academic Health System, Nazarbayev University. Dr. Tavassov has diverse work experience in various realms of healthcare: medical education, state and private healthcare establishments, including industrial projects, and corporate health services at international ventures.

Upon graduating from the South-Kazakhstan State Medical Academy in 2005 with specialization in general medical practice, Dr. Marat Tavassov worked as a teaching assistant at the Department of Family Medicine and Polyclinic Therapy. His professional duties included consulting patients at polyclinics and family-doctor ambulatories, teaching medical students on diagnostics and ambulatory-polyclinic treatment, organizing lectures, seminars and clinical conferences for students and practicing doctors.

In years 2006-2008, as a "Bolashak" program scholar, Marat joined a Master's program at Heller School for Social Policy and Management at Brandeis University, USA, and obtained the Master's degree in International Health Policy and Management .

Upon graduation from the Master's program in 2008, Dr. Tavassov joined a Kazakhstan-Canadian medical services company named "Kazanada" and fulfilled duties of the Regional Clinic Manager in the West-Kazakhstan oblast. Challenges in the new position included establishment and development of medical facilities and health care services to support industrial developments, including remote-site medical facilities. During his work at "Kazanada" in 2008-2010, Dr. Tavassov gained valuable experience in western medical practice, including through collaboration with the Scotland-based company named "Abermed".

In February 2010, Marat accepted the Health Services Advisor position at North-Caspian Operating Company (NCOC), the delegated operator of activities under the North Caspian Sea Production Sharing Agreement (NCPSA) in the Kashagan field, one of the world's largest oil discoveries of the last forty years, in Atyrau. The major responsibilities at NCOC included provision of professional advisory services and coordination of healthcare related activities: compliance with state legislations and corporate requirements, establishment and development of health services programs and infrastructure.

Since April 2011, as Senior Manager at the Department of Integrated Academic Health System at the Nazarbayev University, Dr. Marat Tavassov is responsible for liaison among the key opinion leaders and partners in establishing and developing the Integrated Academic Healthcare System which includes enhanced fruitful interaction of National Medical Holding, Center for Life Sciences and future School of Medicine.

Almas Tolykbayev

Almas Tolykbayev is director of the branch of the International Academy of Business in Astana.

Mr. Tolykbayev has extensive experience in youth policy, production, implementation, administration, advertising and marketing campaigns, training of personnel. He has creative thinking, enthusiasm, communication skills, and project management skills from concept to implementation, negotiation skills, teamwork, coaching and coaching skills, presentation skills, and excellent knowledge of the public market in terms of production and promotion channels. Mr. Tolykbayev develops and conducts corporate trainings on human resource management, leadership development at senior and middle management, participates in team building and art presentations.

Mr. Tolykbaev was in the top 25, "Golden Youth" magazine «Time Out» in November 2008, Best Student RK 2006, the Republican winner of awards "Peace and harmony", included in "Altyn kitap" JSC "Kazakh State Law University" Scholarship winner Professor Ospanov. Received a letter from: Nazarbayev (2007), D. Nazarbayeva (2007, 2006), M. Narikbaev (2007, 2006), Chairman of the Agency of the Republic of Kazakhstan Z.K.Turysbekov for Public Service (2006), etc.

Yahiya Tuleshov

Yahiya Tuleshov, first PMP in Kazakhstan, Founder & Director of consulting company YT SOLUTIONS, providing Business IT services in Oil/Gas, Retail, FMCG, Mining industries

Key competences:

- Professional Project Manager experienced in Integrated Systems Implementation and Finance/Accounting/Banking Processes Re-Engineering;
- Development short/long term strategies and successful implementation via program/project management across the globe;
- Certifications in project management: PMP by PMI and SCPM by Stanford University;
- Over 10 years with blue-chip company, achieving promotion record;
- Specialist in Banking and Treasury area.

Sergey Volkov

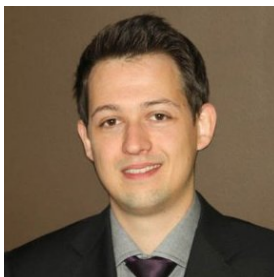

Sergey Volkov is the Executive Director of Documents.kz

Mr. Volkov has the following qualifications and experiences that will aid in providing the leadership of the PMI Kazakhstan Chapter.

Key competences: Marketing, development, planning and management of production tasks, projects, and programs in the field of IT-Industry and leadership.

Mikhail Yevdokimov

Michael Yevdokimov has the following qualifications and experiences that will aid in providing the leadership of the PMI Kazakhstan Chapter.

Mr. Yevdokimov is a Sales Director, CITRIX Solutions at Data Integration Software Kazakhstan. Enthusiastic and driven professional focusing on the client's specific needs and offering solutions in form of both service and product, aiming to preserve the business within the accounts and generate new business. Russian native speaker, fluent in business English, with Master's degree from the University of Louisiana at Lafayette (USA) in Physics/Telecom and strong background in ICT industry.

In his role he performs the following duties:

- anticipate and understand the client's specific needs and offer solution
- develop a selling strategy and plan activities (account planning)
- analyze and adapt new strategies to react to changing business trends
- manage objectives and plans through internal associates
- Sales of Citrix Software licenses to customers in Kazakhstan and Central Asia (Region)
- Managing the key accounts of Citrix in the region. Selling Citrix as a strategic platform in the said organizations.
- Working with existing partners and developing partners channel in the Region
- Conducting Marketing activities with partners and customers
- Managing all the CITRIX related activities at DIS and the Region
- Growing the expertise, CITRIX name on the market, cooperation with global partners among: Microsoft, Cisco, HP and other.
- Developing pipeline, conducting weekly sales KPI's (phone calls, meetings with customers, partners, bringing new partners)